the Miscellaneous Tariff Bill process and HR 4923 – American Manufacturing Competitiveness Act of 2016

Wednesday, April 20, 2016

B-318 Rayburn HOB

3:00 pm

Panelists Include:

Missy Branson – Glen Raven

Mike Seyfert – FMC Corp.

Jamie Hollenberg – Honeywell

Linda Dempsey – National Association of Manufacturers

This discussion will focus on the Miscellaneous Tariff Bill (MTB), a reform policy intended to help American manufacturers compete in the global marketplace by reducing costs and creating a fair and level playing field. The panel of industry experts will describe why passage of MTB is necessary to ensure competitiveness, create new jobs and support manufacturers across our country.
